Thanks, Chris. We will aim for a two week review period so you should expect comments around Oct 21. We would like to have revisions made in two weeks, unless there are issues which require additional discussion or analysis.

I appreciate you joining us for Monday's mining scenario call. We could discuss the roads component at a specific time if you want to join only part of the call. Let me know.

Sheila: October 5th for delivery of a reasonably complete review draft. If possible, I would like to complete revisions and additional research in response to reviews before the end of November, and will reserve my time accordingly, unless I hear otherwise from you.

I regret the delay, which stems from scheduling conflicts with other work. As I warned Phil and Dan back then, the delay originated with the EPA/UofA lag in getting a contract in place last spring and early summer.

Thanks and best,
